Bill	Chapter	Short Title
HB 2096	13	security guard registration; discharged veterans

HB 2096 (Chapter 13): security guard registration; discharged veterans

Allows DPS to issue a 45-day security guard or armed security guard registration certificate, before the required background check is complete, to an honorably discharged veteran who has been discharged no more than three years before application. Allows an applicant who receives a 45-day registration certificate to only work for an agency licensee that provides the required preassignment training.

Effective: August 25, 2020
